POSITION STATUS: Exempt (FLSA); serves at the will of the Attorney General; employment with the Attorney General's office is contingent upon completion of NCIC/NCJIS, and a fingerprint criminal history check.

POSITION SUMMARY: This position provides legal advice and counsel to and representation of the Nevada Department of Taxation on a wide variety of issues and in multiple areas of law, and may require litigation and appellate duties. Additionally, this position will serve periodically as Board Counsel to the Local Government Employee-Management Relations Board (EMRB).

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES: Duties include day-to-day legal advice primarily in the following areas of law: state and local taxation, including sales and use tax, real and personal property tax, net proceeds of minerals tax, tobacco and alcohol excise taxes, commerce tax, transportation tax, business tax, live entertainment tax, and insurance premium tax; local government finance; open meeting law; public records law; contracts; collections and bankruptcy. Additionally, as Board Counsel to the EMRB, the successful applicant must become familiar with laws regulating unfair labor practices; employment discrimination; and, collective bargaining. Duties include litigation in prosecuting and defending state and federal lawsuits and administrative matters. Duties may include perfecting and defending appeals in State and federal appellate courts. Additional duties include opinion writing, as well as drafting and reviewing administrative regulations, policies and procedures.

QUALIFICATIONS

KNOWLEDGE REQUIRED: Applicants must have or develop knowledge of administrative law and practice and laws pertaining to State government affairs including contracting authority, the legislative process and open meeting laws. Applicants must have or develop knowledge in the substantive law of state and local taxation, local government finance, contracts, and labor law. Applicants must also have or develop knowledge of State and federal civil procedure and rules of evidence. It is of particular importance for applicants to have or develop a working knowledge of NRS Chapter 233B (Administrative Procedures Act), Chapter 241 (Open Meeting Law), Chapter 239 (Public Records Law), Chapter 288 (Unfair Labor Practices), and Chapters 360 to 377C (Revenue and Taxation).

SKILLS REQUIRED: Applicants must possess skill in effective analysis of complex legal problems and the proper application of legal principles to resolve problems. Applicants must be able to research legal issues using online computerized legal research tools and engines and draft legal documents including regulations, advisory opinions, contracts and agreements. Applicants must have effective skills in written and verbal communication, presentation of administrative and judicial cases and effective appellate advocacy. Applicants must be able to function when necessary as part of a team, contributing effectively to the accomplishments of team or Office goals, objectives, and activities. Applicants must be highly professional, well-organized, self-motivated, punctual and prompt, and must possess leadership skills or potential. Applicants must also have excellent time management skills and good interpersonal skills.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS: This position requires: mobility to work in a typical office setting; the ability to use standard office equipment and to travel to client offices and locations and courts in various parts of the State; vision to read printed materials and a computer screen; and hearing and clear speech to communicate understandably in person and over the telephone and to hear and respond to questions. Accommodation may be made for some of these physical demands for otherwise qualified individuals who require and request such accommodation.

BAR ADMISSION AND EXPERIENCE: Applicants must possess a certificate of admission to the Bar of the State of Nevada and be eligible to practice law before the courts of the State of Nevada and the federal district and appellate courts. Litigation experience in one or more of the foregoing substantive areas of law is desirable.

This Position Announcement lists the major duties and requirements of the position and is not all-inclusive. The successful applicant may be expected to perform additional job-related duties and may be required to have or develop additional specific job-related knowledge and skills.
